

Law | Data Act

DA.004 Contract w/ user on nonpersonal data

Authors: Winfried Veil

Last update: 2023-08-06 14:01:47 | By: Winfried Veil

Created at: 2022-02-22 15:05:22

Art. 4 (6) Data Act - Trialogue Agreement

A data holder shall only use any readily available data that is non-personal on the basis of a contractual agreement with the user. A data holder shall not use such data to derive insights about the economic situation, assets and production methods of or the use by the user that could undermine the commercial position of the user in the markets in which the user is active.