Art. 9 (5) DSA:

Providers of intermediary services shall inform the recipient of the service concerned at the latest at the time when the order was applied, of the order received and the effect given to it, or, where applicable, at the time provided by the issuing authority in its order. Such information to the recipient of the service shall, at least, include the statement of reasons, redress possibilities, and the territorial scope of the order, as included in the order pursuant to paragraph 2.
